THE FORSAKEN ONE.

BY GASKELL.

She loved as lovers the trusting mind.
In pride of youthful heart,
Without one thought of earthly gain,
Or sorrow's keen, cold sting,
No gloom had shrouded her fond hopes,
No cloud obscured her sun;
He loved her as he loved his life;
He loved her as he loved his life.

A change came o'er her life's young dream,
Filled her fond soul with grief;
A sweet made of all her hopes,
Turning away from her,
He loved no longer, as he said,
Her childish, simple way,
He sought for one more, proudly formed,
To grace his prophetic day.

O! then was turned to inner course,
The joyous stream that gushed
From out her pure and trusting heart,
Fool treachery had crushed—
The flower that blossoms obscurely,
Within some hidden dell,
He moved to meet a colder blast,
He died as he may tell.

The brightness of her full, black eye,
By glowing tears was dimmed,
The rosy tint once on her cheek,
Upon past years was limed;
For now deep lines of suffering there,
Each beauty given,
The brightness fled from out her soul,
She sorrow's child at last.

TELEGRAPHIC

Assessment.

San Francisco, 25.—Treasurers levy an assessment of 10c.

The Needle.

Gibraltar 25.—Lord Napier, of Magdala, has visited the steamer Despatch, with the oblique on board. She will sail for the United States to-day.

To Sue for Damages.

Boston, 25.—Passengers of the wrecked steamer, of the Stoughton line, have decided on bringing suit against this company for damages.

Mosquito Agent.

Washington, 25.—The President has appointed John H. Sullivan, of Madison, Ind., agent for the Mosquito Agency, Arizona, vice Miles A. Bryerton, resigned.

A Hint for Hendricks.

Indianapolis, 25.—In a speech at Shelbyville English said he was proud of the welcome at the former home of Hendricks, a gentleman who, without doubt, would be an active participant in the councils and administrations of the new democratic government.

Fatal Fall.

Harrisburg, Pa., 25.—Two young women, of West Fairport, a village opposite this city, were struck by a train while walking over the railroad bridge, were knocked off the bridge and fell into the river below. A distance of fifty feet. It is seriously injured, one supposed to be fatally.

The Eastern Famine.

London, 25.—A correspondent from Peru, discussing the famine in Asia Minor, says he learns from all sides that the British consuls, Armenian relief committees and American missionaries have been most active and have done all in their power to alleviate the miseries of the famished population.

Hanged.

St. Louis, 25.—Thomas B. Hopper was hanged at Greenfield, Mo., yesterday afternoon, for the murder of Samuel C. Ham, near Labadie, Cedar county, Mo., of last August. He protested his innocence to the last and gave his attorney when on the gallows a written statement regarding his case which will be published.

The British Parliament.

London, 25.—The resolution of Stevenson, liberal in the House of Commons, to close public houses on Sunday in England and Wales was amended to express the opinion of the House that provision should be made in the country districts during the hours of public liquor, for consumption of the same, and for the fulfilment of requirements of metropolitan districts.

Canadian Pacific.

Toronto, 25.—There is unusual activity in the Canadian railway world. It is reported that the Dominion government is considering the project of purchasing the Canadian Pacific railway from the Canadian Pacific railway company, who will undertake the construction of the Canadian Pacific road on terms very advantageous to government, and that Sir Charles Tupper is going home next week to arrange the matter.

Sunday School Celebration.

Chicago, 25.—The great Sunday school celebration in this city opened to-day, in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the original establishment of Sunday schools by Robert Raikes, was imposing. The exercises took place in the Exposition Building, which was crowded with people. Rev. F. A. Noble, of Union Park Congregational Church, and others, spoke.

Foreign Flashes.

Cape Town, 25.—Government has abandoned the proposal for a conference of South African colonies and states.

Berlin, 25.—Bismarck has conferred with Bennigsen, leader of the moderate liberals, and Paunhoff, parliamentary leader of conservatives, with the view to effect a union of the two parties in regard to the church bill.

Home, 25.—The law passed nuncio to Belgium will be very large instructions for an amicable solution of all controversies.

Melbourne, 25.—The ministry has advised the government to dissolve Parliament.

Political Points.

New York, 25.—The Tribune says: Can the good record of Hancock lead the American people to condemn the war record of his supporters?

The Sun says the responsibility of the republican party for the monstrous crime that overthrew an election by the people in 1876 is not wiped out by any act of any convention.

The Times says: Who nominated General Hancock? The solid south and Tammany Hall. If Hancock should be elected, he left Peru in the service of his country, and Tammany Hall. The democratic ticket looked stronger yesterday than it ever will again.

Prado's Defense.

New York, 25.—The Times says: General Prado, whose office as president of the republic of Peru was recently seized by Piérola, is now in this city. The admiral of Piérola, who he fled from Peru when the republic was in great danger, and General Prado, in his defense, says that he left the country on a slightly important and patriotic mission. He insists that he left Peru after taking all the constitutional steps required of him, with authority from the national congress, the unanimous approval of a council of members, and leaving the government organized and constituted in the form prescribed by the constitution. He says he left Peru in the service of his cause, and sailed publicly, in broad daylight, with the sanction of the ministers of state, and the approval of the authorities. In support of his statements, General Prado submits a letter to the chamber of senators, dated May 4, 1879, asking permission to leave the country in the reply of May 9, 1879, granting the permission; his decree of December 18, 1879, appointing Piérola, and the proclamation of La Piérola, assuming the reins of office.

Grant on Hancock

Chicago, 25.—Times' Gleaner: It is not true, as reported, that Gen. Grant has declared his intention of supporting Hancock. The report declares that Grant has made no favorable comments on Hancock, and that he has not yet decided on the action of the Cincinnati convention. He does not hesitate to say that in his opinion the democratic party, in General Hancock, nominated their best and strongest man for the office of president, and that either his public or private character can be successfully assailed. This is the substance of the ex-president's public statement on that subject.

New York, 25.—The Evening Post: The democratic report that Grant has signified his intention to vote for Hancock is largely incorrect. It is well known among army officers that Grant has had a decided aversion to Hancock ever since they were together in Mexico, and probably democrats could not have accepted a man who could have been more unsatisfactory to Grant.

Medicine Men.

New York, 25.—The Herald says of the two conventions: The result is not dominated for the presidency. This is a salutary result, for it is a security against imperialism. It is a security against imperialism. It is a security against imperialism.
